THE 1984 COLLEGIAN

Vancouver College is one of the many Christian Brothers schools around the world founded for the education of Catholic youth. The faculty, consisting of 46 religious and lay staff, instructs 930 students, including residents, in grades one through twelve. The Brothers' Community at 5400 Cartier Street, Vancouver, has been serving British Columbia since 1922.

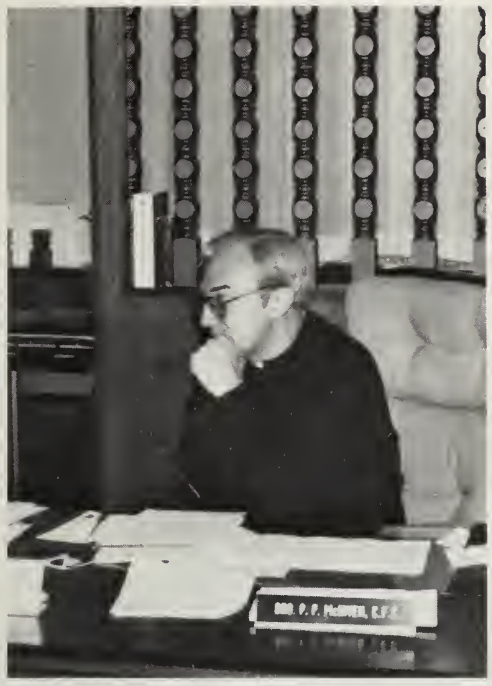
REV. J. KILTY, R.I.P.

Father John Kilty has had a long association with Vancouver College especially during his 30 years as pastor of Holy Trinity Parish in North Vancouver. As a pastor he encouraged students from his parish school to come to the College and as a basketball coach his teams often competed with College in the C.Y.A. league. In 1982 he was named Pastor of Sts.Peter and Paul following Msgr. Nichol's reitrement. During his first year as pastor, he was the chief celebrant at the Mass of the Holy Spirit in September and at the pre-Christmas Mass. He also coached one of the grade nine basketball teams. However, early in May he discovered that he had terminal cancer. He died about a month later on June 12, 1983. With his death, Vancouver College lost a good priest, a loyal supporter and a true friend. R.I.P.

BROTHER GERARD

Brother Gerard Van de Ven of the Brothers of Our Lady of Lourdes came to College first in 1956 shortly after he had come to Canada from Holland. After spending most of the 1956-57 school year at V.C., he worked for a number of years at the Lourdes Brothers Farm near Lethbridge, Alberta. After that he taught French at St. Mary's school in Taber, Alberta for many years. Eventually he returned to V.C. after a sabbatical year in Edmonton during which he studied crafts and mechanical arts. On his return to College in 1974 he taught Industrial Education and Religion. In June 1983, he retired from the classroom. He is still the general handiman around the Brother's Residence and the school, and keeps V.C.'s antiquated heating system in operation. Many thanks for your years of service to Vancouver College and the Collegian staff wishes you Ad Multos Annos!

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE



Vancouver College is a Catholic school and has been run by the Christian Brothers, assisted by dedicated lay staff, for the past sixty-two years. It was founded to educate young men to Christianity by incorporating the spiritual, academic, athletic, and social/extra-curricular aspects of the student's life.

The Christian dimension must pervade all our actions and studies, attempting to carry us to the meaning of our lives. To pay attention to only one aspect of school life and to ignore another is to fail in our attempts to educate the whole man. Why? Because we will not be true to our vision of life which sees Jesus Christ as the incomparable source of meaning for human life.

This yearbook is an effort to capture the total spirit of Vancouver College. The pictures accent specific events and people and, therefore, cannot create the "Fighting Irish" community. However, we who are involved in forming this community will remember and be refreshed by recalling the spirit of care, commitment and concern which gives life to the photographic "bones".

Congratulations and best wishes to the staff, students and parents memorialized by this annual. May we all continue to strive for the human excellence taught and lived by Jesus Christ.

CHURCH LEADERS

Vancouver's Archbishop James F. Carney, Class of '33 with Pope John Paul II in Rome, September 1983.

GRADUATES

12 YEAR MEN

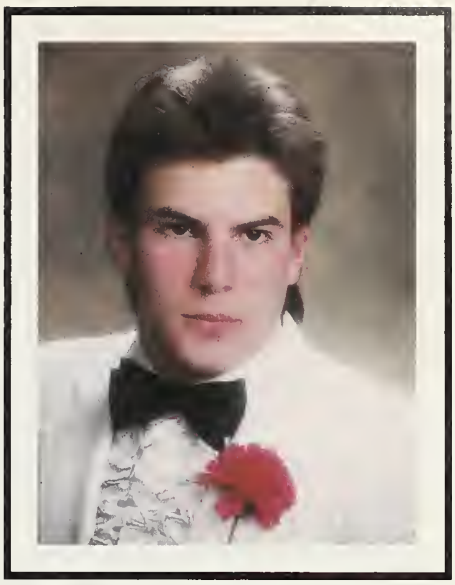
These four young men have seen twelve years of change in Vancouver College -- four different principals, constant beautifying of the campus and the building of the new Brothers' Residence. Through the earnest, though sometimes firm, guidance of the Christian Brothers, light has been shed on their future paths. Though each may go his separate way, they will be permanently linked together by their common background -- V.C.

Before taking their final step they have decided to revert, one last time, to their days in grade one with Mrs. Carmack. Here they are: (Left to Right) Rod Lobozar, Sean Murphy, Chris Gray, Carlos Amorantos. They still have the child in them, but they have matured to young men who will soon fill the shoes of responsible citizens in society. These are the 12 YEAR MEN.

Sponsored by
CANADA WIRE AND CABLE LTD.

CARLOS AMORANTO

Carlos, one of the select few grads who have completed twelve long years at Vancouver College, has participated in all aspects of school life. During his years here Carlos has been a part of many school teams including basketball in his junior years and track and field in his senior years. During his spare time you may find him listening to music or roaming the halls of the College. He would like to thank all the Brothers and teachers who helped him complete his high school years. Carlos plans to further his education at U.B.C. or B.C.I.T.



ROD LOBOZAR

Another of this year's twelve year men, Rod first came to College in grade one. In his twelve years at V.C. he has participated in many school activities, including playing football for the "Fighting Irish" at the grade eight and varsity levels. Rod also enjoys skiing, but when not bashin' bumps at Whistler he can be found chasing skirts just about everywhere else. Rod's scholastic achievements are too numerous to mention. After surviving graduation, Rod hopes to own a Porsche and persue a life of recklessness.

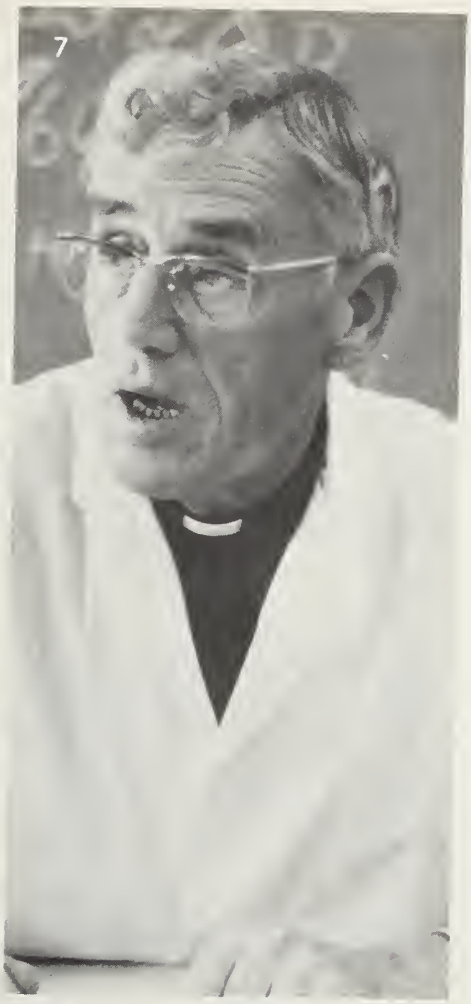
CHRISTOPHER B. GRAY

Chris is one of the few twelve year men in this year's graduating class. During his prolonged stay at the College, he has participated in the senior wrestling program, and he is a skilled minor official participating in the B.C. Championships two years ago. Among his favourite memories of College are Br. Kelly's Algebra 11 class, trying to avoid his homework and selling Christmas trees in the tree lot. When Chris is not in the Cariboo fishing, he enjoys skiing at Whistler and Blackcomb with his friends. His future plans are to move to the Cariboo to set up a small fishing business.

SEAN MURPHY

Another twelve-year man, Sean excelled in every aspect of College and was considered the most likely to succeed in his grad class. After winning the Religion award in grade three, Sean was lead downhill by his peers thus ending any hope of being called to the monastic way of life. By grade nine his condition worsened when he played a leading role in the destruction of a high school dance. Permanently branded: "A major disruption to the College way of life!", Sean has none-the-less taken part in various musical productions of the school. He is happy to have survived his twelve years, and has no immediate plans for the future.

1. "What do you mean I am not cool!" 2. Do "les Chameaux" have ears? 3. Jason Grant hard at work. 4. "Boy did I fail this test badly!" exclaimed Yoblonski. 5. "I hate Polish people!" Cried the Spanish Basque. 6. "Teacher may I be excused!" 7. "See what happens when you don't study," exclaims Br. Brennan. 8. "Once upon a time there was a little deer . . ."



Bambi

GRADUATES OF 1984

GEOFF ADAIR

Geoff has been travelling from North Vancouver to Vancouver College for the past six years. A member of Holy Trinity Parish, he attended Holy Trinity Elementary School. His hobbies include swimming, weightlifting, biking, hiking, printing and trying to grow vegetables organically. A total ecology freak, Geoff hopes to live in a commune after graduation and study the arts at U.B.C. thus achieving total happiness and inner peace.

GREGORY ARMITAGE

Greg has been commuting from "sunny Richmond" to College since grade seven. He has played on the Varsity soccer team and the badminton team. Besides sports, his main interest is in listening to the Rolling Stones and the Who on his stereo. Although his future plans are not finalized, he would like to pursue a career in the music industry in order to become as rich as Mick Jagger. .

MIKE ANTONIAZZI

Since leaving David Oppenhiemer School after grade seven, Mike has been making the daily bus trip to V.C. from East Vancouver. In his years at College, he has been identified with one thing, football. He has started as a running back for the past three years and was co-captain for this year's squad, earning his varsity letter in grade eleven. When he isn't scoring touchdowns, Mike can be found at the nearest party with the rest of the "Dreaded Class of '84". His future is to go on to play football at S.F.U. while studying to become a teacher. He will always find time to return and support the spirit of College as an alumnus.

JEROME ATHERTON

Jerome has been part of the V.C. scene for five fun-filled years of academic studies. During his senior year he played on the championship varsity soccer team, and he hopes to be able to keep on playing for the rest of his life. His limited spare time is spent skiing on the local mountains, working at a grocery store and driving his "green bomb". After grad, Jerome plans to continue his education at either U.B.C. or S.F.U. in as yet an undecided field. On completing his tertiary education he plans to spearhead the mass migration north to follow-up the Greenhouse effect.

PETER BARONE

Peter came to V.C. in Grade 7 from St. Augustines Elementary School. During his very enjoyable stay, Peter has participated in many areas of the Irish life. Peter played football in grade 8, basketball in grades 7, 8, 9 and his Varsity year, and has been involved in the school band for 6 years. Known as "Bru" to his friends, Peter's interests include listening to all types of music and continuously drumming. Peter's hope for the future is to become one of Vancouver's top drummers. Plans for school after graduation include the music department at U.B.C.

ANDREW BENNETT

Andrew who hails from Ashcroft in the B.C. interior, moved into the McCormack Hall Residence for grade ten and has been a resident student ever since. All through his years at V.C. he has done well in school maintaining a good average. Still he is able to take time to play on the championship Varsity Soccer team, to listen to music and to criticize the quality of food in the cafeteria. Andrew also enjoys playing hockey and volleyball and is an ardent skier. When he graduates he isn't quite sure what he will do with his life, but he hopes to continue his studies at a still-to-be determined university.

PAUL J. BRENNAN

A Newfoundland-born Edmontonian, Paul decided to improve his educational standard by becoming a resident student at V.C. in grade eleven. He enjoyed playing football in grade eleven and worked on Brother Kelly's lawn crew in grade twelve. In his spare time he may be found relaxing under the Granville Bridge on a huge net, playing frisbee in a certain botanical garden near the College, or trying to help J.S. and A.P. with their Math homework. While living in McCormack Hall, Paul made some good friends including some idiots, a great "brain" and some who must remain "unclassified". He feels that he owes a great deal to his uncle and his parents for their help, understanding, support and love.

TALINO BRUNO

Coming to V.C. in grade eight from East Va., Talino has participated in all facets of College life. In grade eight he played basketball and ran track. In grade nine he played soccer; in grade ten he received his letter for track and participated in the summer games and a year later in the Canadian nationals. A member of the student council in charge of social activities, Talino has maintained a steady "B" average throughout his life at College. When he is not running track, Talino can be found listening to music; especially to a band known as the DOORS. Talino hopes to further his education at U.B.C. in the field of medicine.

ANTHONY GERARD BOULTON

Anthony has been commuting to V.C. from the wilds of Aldergrove for the past five years. During his stay at the College, he has concentrated mainly on his studies, only on occasion taking time out to "rebel against the system". During his spare time Anthony likes to draw, play the piano, toss around a football, and perfect the complicated technique of "vegging out". His immediate plans include entering the Faculty of Science at U.B.C. and becoming a professional cartoonist. Anthony would like to take this opportunity to thank the Brothers and teachers for an enjoyable and rewarding stay.

1. Jeff, Rod, Chris appreciate Mrs. Naas' sense of humor. 2. "Anything to drink, Guys?" 3. "The Boys!" 4. "Help . . ." Cried Jon. 5. Paul in a rare moment of reflection. 6. What do you mean there is something wrong with my face? 7. "Remember, when a electron is removed from the nucleus . . . 8. Contrary to regulations, David sits on a desk.

MARK R. CHARLESON

Mark appeared at V.C. in the eleventh grade and promptly disappeared after the distribution of the annual. During his two year stay Mark considered football, but then had pity on the opponents, and joined the soccer team instead. When not deeply involved in his studies, Mark enjoys sailing, skiing, disagreeing A.M., Musical landscapes and public transport. As an amateur theologian, Mark plans to take a year's vacation in Europe before going to the university in the Arts.

SIU-HOE, CHEAH

A native of Malaysia, Siu (See-you) has been at the College since grade seven. Coming here after a year at St. Edmund's School, he entered into that Spirit which is unique to College. Besides participating in other sports, Siu played on the Varsity football team for two years. As a member of the band he played the trumpet for four years. He took part in the exchange trip to Montreal; now his trumpet has been put to rest. In his spare time Siu commutes to school in his Mazada 626 from West Vancouver. His hobbies include various sports, the martial arts, girls, etc. After graduation he plans to take a restful vacation, after which he will pursue his career in the science program at U.B.C.

STANLEY CHIANG

Stan came to V.C. in grade eight after graduating from St. Jude's. He participated in grade eight and J.V. football, but dropped athletics in his senior year to concentrate on the academics. He is proud of being a V.C. student and part of the "Fighting I". His interests are mainly in sports; he loves to play soccer, football, hockey and basketball. After grad, his plans for the future include sleeping, letting his mind vacation for a while by having fun under the sun and enjoying all the lovely things at the beach. Eventually, he hopes to attend university to study in the field of architecture hoping to become a successful, famous, and rich architect.

JOHN TIMOTHY CLARKE

Coming from O.L.P.H. Elementary, John began his six year stay at College in grade seven. Since then he has concentrated on the athletic life of V.C., and has found to his amazement that his studies sometimes interfered. John earned his letter after playing two years of Varsity Football and six years of his favourite sport, basketball. In his grade eleven year, he was a member of the 1983 basketball team that placed third in the B.C. Tournament. He has also participated in track and soccer. Winter weekends see him skiing the powder on the peaks of Whistler. After graduation, John plans to further his education at U. Vic.

RALPH GERARD CIRENCIONE

Arriving from the flatlands of Richmond in 1979, as a grade eight student at V.C., Ralph was quickly engulfed in the academic and extra-curricular activities of the Fighting I. After participating, in football in grades nine and ten, Ralph wrestled for the Varsity Team from grades ten to twelve and earned his letter in grade eleven. As a final fling, Ralph was involved in the 'Collegian' as a photographer. Having played the clarinet in the school band for five years, he joined the Beefeater Band and performed with them throughout Britain in the summer of '83, after which he played with them at all the B.C. Lions' home games at the new B.C. Place Stadium. His future plans are to attend U.B.C. to pursue a science major focusing on post-graduate studies in medicine.

KEVIN CHRISTOPHER CLARKE

Another product of Holy Trinity Elementary School, Kevin has been attending V.C. since grade eight. During his stay he spent a lot of time in the sports aspect of the school. He played football since grade eight and was a co-captain of his year's team. He earned his Varsity letter playing Varsity football and wrestling, but he also played basketball to the J.V. level. Being president of the Lettermen's Club, he became active in many other school activities. In the little spare time he has left, Kevin enjoys parties, skiing up Whistler, and eating. After graduation he hopes to continue playing football at S.F.U.

MATTHEW CORDWELL

Another traveller from sunny Tsawwassen, Matt has been making his way to V.C. every day since grade eight. During his stay he participated in track, wrestling and intramurals. In his spare time he can be found skiing, listening to heavy metal music or just having a good time with his friends. After graduation, Matt intends to pursue a career in accountancy at U.B.C. He will always remember Brother Gerard's mighty line, "Tools away" from industrial education in grade eight.

DOUGLAS ARTHUR CORREA

Since his arrival from Immaculate Conception Elementary School in Delta, Doug has been patiently pacing the halls of V.C. for five years, during which he has grown to appreciate the many aspects of College life. Athletically, Doug's stay at V.C. has been a most memorable one - being quite active in track, senior football and basketball. His main interests, however, have been basketball, with his involvement in student council as Vice President running a close second. During the summer, Doug can be found with "Pinky" soaking in the sun, and hopefully graduating from "Backyard Ball" at "U.K.B." His present aim is to attend U.B.C. in the field of Law.

JAMES P. CORRIGAN

Jamie came to Vancouver College in grade eleven from the Dominican Republic. Leaving the luxuries of home behind, he spent two years as a resident student. Although studies were his first objective, Jamie participated in the College tennis team during his first year. After graduation, he plans to further his education next year by studying business at one of Vancouver's Universities.

PAUL L. DELLA-LANA

A parishioner from Immaculate Conception, Paul came to V.C. in grade seven from Kerrisdale Elementary School. Since his arrival, he has maintained a "B" average in his studies as well as playing on the football, soccer, and basketball teams along the way. His memories include such far out places as Calgary, Kelowna, and Nanimo, in which he is known for his super-man tactics. Paul enjoys skiing and other weekend activities. His future plans include a long vacation after which he'll pursue a career in architecture, possibly designing the first "Super Hi Can" at O'Keefe's University.

ERWIN DAVID

Another long-distance commuter, Erwin has been making the trek to V.C. daily since he left Immaculate Conception Elementary in Delta five years ago. A consciencious student, he has participated in all facets of V.C. life, but has been especially centered around sports like football and wrestling. When he is not studying, Erwin takes an interest in all aspects of life around him. After grad, he plans to continue his studies at a University yet to be determined.

NEIL DESA

Neil, a parishioner of St. Stephen's in North Vancouver, came to V.C. in grade eight from Lynn Valley Elementary School and has been communing to College ever since. Besides winning essay contests, he participated in intramurals in grades eight, nine and ten. When he is not studying, Neil enjoys playing soccer, ping-pong and going cycling. Neil has found the atmosphere among the students at V.C. very friendly. During his stay at V.C., he did well academically, and after graduation plans to study the Sciences at U.B.C. and eventually to enter the medical profession.

JAMES VINCENT DUGALO

Since his arrival at V.C. in grade ten, Jim has participated in the intramural program as well as on the Varsity Wrestling team. Although he regretted leaving the public school system, he would like to thank the Brothers and teachers at V.C. for a great learning experience. Jim's hobbies include listening to music, playing sports on the weekends and just having a good time. He intends to further his education at U.B.C. in the field of orthodonistry.

ROSS C. DENNISON

Ross, otherwise known as Clyde, came to V.C. from St. Augustine's five years ago. During his time at College he has been on the yearbook staff for four of the five years. In his spare time he likes to go to York House, to drive, to talk to Mr. Bell or tries to get to Mr. Sponza's class on time, if indeed he makes it at all. Among the highlights of his senior year were wreaking his car, falling asleep in Mr. Sponza's class, constructing the Collegian, the Grad party and driving to West Van at 2 AM to go fishing. After graduation, Clyde plans to further his education in the field of law.

ANIL PAUL DOLAN

Anil, who came to Vancouver from India when he was ten, has been commuting from North Vancouver to V.C. ever since he left Montroyal Elementary five years ago. Since grade eight, Anil has participated in many V.C. teams, such as: football, track and field, and soccer. Anil's favourite activity is playing racquetball and road hockey. Often he can be found supporting the Irish at various sports or just hanging around the gym. After grad, Anil plans to go to U.B.C. for Sciences.

BRADLEY VICTOR DONE

Brad came to the College nine year ago, after attending the tiny Kerrisdale Annex Elementary School. Though much of his time was spent studying or working at school, Brad managed to lend four years of his time to the Yearbook Staff, as well as to participate for a short period in the College Band. In his spare time he enjoys biking, photography, scuba-diving, and music. He is also a member of the P.C. Party of Canada. With future plans yet undecided, Brad plans to take a year or two off to work before continuing on to university probably to study in the sciences.

CHRIS DZIEKAN

Chris has been roaming the halls of Vancouver College for the last eight years. He earned his V.C. letter in grade eleven after being involved in the football program and senior captain of the wrestling team. Chris can be found "pumping iron" daily in sunny Richmond along with playing keyboard and bass guitar in a local band. On the odd weekends, he can be found partying with the locals in Montreal. Chris hopes to pursue a career in law or music after high school.

MARK ECHLIN

Mark came to the College in grade eight from Ecole Saint Sacrament. During his high school years at V.C., he played on the tennis and hockey teams. In his spare time he plays more hockey, skiis and golfs, all in due season. After grad, Mark plans to persue a career in arts at U.B.C., but his immediate goal is to break 90 in golf.

JOSE JESUS GONZALEZ ESTRELLA

J.J. came to V.C. from Richmond five years ago; then he saw the light and moved to North Delta. While here at College he participated in track, in grade eight, was vice-president in grade nine, and class treasurer in grade twelve. When not in school, he likes to go out with the Richmond crowd and party. After school he would like to work for a while, before going to University to study psychology. On the other hand, J.J. might return to the Philippines to study acting.

MICHAEL DZIEKAN

Mike has been walking the halls of College for the past eight years, making his entry in grade five. Mike has made many friends throughout his lengthy stay. He enjoys playing football and pumping iron. After school hours, he can be found having great times with friends and enjoying music, music, and more music, dedicating his time to learning new styles of guitar. After graduation, Mike hopes to further his education in the musical field hoping to make a name for himself as musician.

ANTHONY D. EMSLANDER

Formerly from David Oppenheimer School, Tony has been commuting to College from Champlain Heights since grade four. A loyal supporter of the "Irish", his sports interests have centered on Cross-country as well as track and field. In his many years at College, Tony has exemplified the College motto: "Semper fidelis" -- always faithful! After grad he has not yet determined what his future course of action will be.

DAVID FALCON

David has travelled from West Vancouver since grade eight relying on the bus system as his sole transportation. Since his arrival he has actively participated in coming late for school and by making an annual contribution to the missions. Dave also joined last year's musical, Guys and Dolls, and intends to join this year's as well. His hobbies include skiing at Whistler, tennis, weightlifting, and social gatherings. David's future plans are to further his scholastic excellence as an aero-nautical engineer. If by some slim chance David does not achieve this ambition, he plans to read books.

JAMES EARL FARENHOLTZ

Jim came to Vancouver College at the beginning of grade seven from Blueridge Elementary School in North Vancouver. While attending V.C., he has been an integral part of the basketball team since grade seven. This year he has also played on the Varsity soccer team, besides being a Letterman. Jim has achieved a steady "B" average throughout his stay at V.C. In the future he hopes to be out at U.B.C. working towards a degree in the faculty of law, as well as pushing his Rock Band towards a recording sometime in the near future.

MARK FATHERS

Mark has been dragging himself into College from the lowlands of Richmond every morning since he completed grade seven in St. Paul's Elementary School. He is a very active person which helps make him a good representative for the College Wrestling team. Outside of school, Mark may often be found out on the slopes skiing or in the woods, camping. As he has a fascination for the riches of life, Mark took up a job at a jewelry store. After grad, Mark plans to spend the summer in Montreal learning French before he returns to God's country to further his education in chemistry at U.B.C.

WENDELL FONG

Wendell came to V.C. in grade five from downtown's St. Francis Xavier school, and has since achieved high academic standings. During his last two years at V.C., Wendell has been an active member of the yearbook staff and has participated in many school sports. Recently giving up the more competitive sports, he now enjoys playing golf and archery; as well as war games, fishing, Computers and listening to music. Wendell hopes to continue his studies in the field of science at U.B.C, but has not yet made a definite decision on a future career.

GABOR FRICSKA

Gabor came to Vancouver College in grade ten from the northern reaches of our province otherwise known as Cassiar. After spending three years tolerating "boarder" food, he swears he will never forget the experience. He has supported many activities of the College and has participated in his favourite, hockey. While Gabor's future is as yet undecided, he will probably further his education at a local college or university.

PETER FURMEDGE

Another import from Holy Trinity, Peter has been commuting from the slopes for North Vancouver since grade seven. His main academic interests are sciences and mathematics in which he has always maintained high marks. He intends to continue in these fields in university. His hobbies include sailing, biking, skiing, being a computer hacker, Model aircraft and model trains, as well as tinkering with mechanical contraptions such as antique cars and mouse-trapmobiles. Peter's goal in life is to be part of mankind's departure from earth and the colonization of strange new worlds.

SHAWN GALLACHER

Shawn came to V.C. in grade 9 from University Hill School in Point Grey. Since then he has been a member of the cast of two musicals: "West Side Story" and "Guys and Dolls". His real interest lies in soccer where he participted in the senior soccer team. As this team practiced throughout the year a real closeness was formed between all the players. Shawn's plans for the future include: studying Japanese as a foreign language and then teaching English in Japan, or as an alternative studying criminalogy at Langara College.

BENEDICT MICHAEL GARRY

For the past five years, Ben has been making his way to V.C. from his Kerrisdale residence by any means available. When not cramming for a test or asking teachers some questions, Ben can be found playing golf or putting the yearbook together. As a four year member of the yearbook staff, Ben's contributions have been countless; a founding member of the Debate Team, a J.V. football player, plus a member of the band for two years. Ben has fond memories of the French tour in '81 and those informative Physics classes. Ben's future plans include entering the Science Faculty at UBC in order to become a doctor like his father, and travelling to every one of Her Majesty's realms and territories.

TIMOTHY SEAN GAINES

A parishioner at St. Paul's in Richmond, and former student at St. Paul's Parish School for seven years, Paul came to College in grade eight. He enjoys all sports, especially snow skiing, water skiing and ice-hockey which he has played for six years. In his spare time he enjoys listening and dancing to rock and roll music, and going to a great many concerts, as his T-shirt collection proves. Over the years, Tim has been a good student and received the religion award in grade 11. In future he hopes to enter U.B.C. to take up geological sciences, but only time can tell.

JIMMY NICK GEORGAS

Jimmy or Ghino as he is called by his friends came to College in grade four. Since then he has played in most of the sports at V.C., including basketball, track, and all levels of football totally five years. When not playing football, Jimmy can be found making pizzaz at his father's restaurant or driving his friends to parties in his Datsun 210. Jimmy plans to further his academic and athletic career at S.F.U. and eventually open a chain of whole wheat pizza restaurants.

TONY GERIC

Tony came to V.C. in Grade 8 from St. Andrews Elementary. He played for the Varsity soccer team and his other main interests include hockey, football, golf and good rock and roll. Tony is also the College's biggest supporter of the Vancouver Whitecaps win or lose. Tony plans to further his education at Langara College after his days at V.C. are over.

ANDREW GILSON

Andrew has been attending College since he left Quilchena Elementary in grade eight and has been coming to V.C. ever since. Since then he has participated in different activities including intramurals and the Collegian. When not studying Andrew can be found cycling, taking pictures, playing golf, skiing the local slopes, or just reading the latest 'Star Trek' novel. After graduation Andrew plans to attend U.B.C. in the faculty of Science.

SEAN GIEFING

"Giefer" came to Vancouver College in grade eight from Holy Trinity on the North Shore. The endless hours in Br. Kelly's Algebra class and Mr. Bell's French class have enabled Sean to possess a greater appreciation for the good things of life. For him the good things in College life have been playing basketball and football at the grade eight, junior varisty and Varsity levels. When not indulging himself in hours of homework, he can be found on the court or overthrowing Brian MacDonald in endzones all over Bellingham. After graduation Sean plans to enter the field of criminology at S.F.U. and become very rich.

JASON GRANT

Jason arrived at V.C. in grade eight after spending a year learning the ways of the Quebecois while living in the tiny Quebec village of St. Gregoire. Since his arrival Jason has maintained either an 'A' or 'B' average, while participating in the Student Council in grades ten and twelve, serving as secretary in the latter. Jason also managed the Varsity basketball team from grades nine through eleven, deciding to dedicate himself to his studies in grade twelve. Music plays an important role in his life as he is working at CITR, U.B.C. Radio, Vancouver's alternative radio station. Jason plans to continue making inroads into the Vancouver new music scene after graduation while studying at U.B.C. in the area of history and cultural sciences.

STUART GRANT

Stuart, a resident student from William's Lake, came to the College in 1981. He played center on the J.V. Basketball team under Br. Cull. He returned to the College after a year of absence during grade eleven which he spent in Williams Lake. During his senior year he played varsity basketball and was involved in Student Council activities. Stuart feels that he has benefited from the ups and downs of life as a resident student. He enjoys basketball, weekends, music and partying. After graduation, he plans to continue his studies at university.

MICHAEL RONALD HARRISON

Mike has been coming to V.C. from Delta for the past six years. Before attending College, he attended Mitchell School in Richmond. When not grounded at home, he likes to spend his free time at parties, rock concerts with girls or racing in the V.W. His interests at school are collecting late slips, using the computers and supporting the "Fighting Irish". After graduation Mike plans on taking a year out to travel around North America in a Van and possibly fly over to Europe for a few months. After this year of travel Mike plans on going to U.B.C. to further his education in computer science and commerce.

GEOFFREY CHARLES MACINNES GRAY-GRANT

Another O.L.P.H. Parish product from Point Grey, Geoff got off to a slow start at College life, but when he found out what the word "fight" meant in the "Fighting Irish" from the Brothers he reformed his ways. Besides being an active participant in sports, which included Varsity football, wrestling and tennis, Geoff also enjoyed being vice-president of the Lettermen. Fond memories of College will include dances, a leadership conference and saying "Bonjour" to people at parties. Geoff's future plans are to go to Brazil and become a famous coffee bean picker, but if he gets fired he might settle for the Arts program at U.B.C.

SCOTT HOLIDAY

Scott came to College in grade nine from Kalamalka Junior secondary School in Vernon, and at first was a resident student (thankfully for only one year). He then moved to sunny White Rock where he has commuted for the past three years. In the long years he has roamed the halls of V.C. he has concentrated on his studies, but enjoys various social activities, kidding the boarders and supporting school teams. After graduation, Scott plans to attend U.B.C. in the field of Business Administration and computer technology.

JOHN HORNYAK

John came to V.C. in grade eight from Blessed Sacrament School. Among other activities, he has been an active member of the debating team at College. When not at school, John likes to ski, to play tennis and to travel. After graduation, John plans to continue his education at U.B.C. and persue a career in Business Administration.

JOHN HSUAN

John came to the College in grade eight and participated in the Fighting Irish football from grade 9 to 12. In his spare time, he can be found out somewhere partying, or in his bed sleeping. In the future he wishes to be very successful so that he can retire at an early age and join the leisure class. John will always live up to V.C. motto of "Semper Fidelis" by coming back to support the Irish Football team after graduation.

JOSEPH IVANCIC

Joseph has been commuting from the sunny district of Richmond since grade six. Briefly participating in football and wrestling, he exemplified the spirit of College by attending most football and basketball games cheering the Irish on. His hobbies are doing almost anything with the rest of his Richmond friends, including playing tackle football at Palmer School every Sunday. Joseph enjoys video games, camping and girls. He plans to further his education at Langara College before going on at U.B.C. or B.C.I.T.

JEFFREY NORMAN HOWEY

Jeff has been attending College since he came here from Shaughnessey Elementary in grade three. In the past ten years he has taken part in football, track and debating. In his leisure time, he enjoys snow and water skiing, cycling, running and working part time at the Vancouver Public Library. His academic achievement include winning the religion award in grade five and maintaining good grades. His plans for the future include continuing his education at U.B.C. in the field of science and medicine.

GEORGE HUDSON

George came to College two years ago from St. Michael's University School in Victoria. He has participated in various school activities, particularly Varsity Football which he likes almost as well as soccer and racketball. George also played rugby year round when he was in Victoria. While his favourite subject is history, in the fall he hopes to enroll in the faculty of Commerce at U.B.C. His goal is to buy a car so he won't have to take the bus any more.

DAVID KHOURY

Dave has been haunting the halls of V.C. since grade eight and has loved every minute of it, even though some moments were much more memorable than others, and some he would rather forget. In that regard he has been blowing his sax and has been "jamin" with Gordon Olson since grade 8. He has participated in many activities such as the Standards Committee, the Yearbook Staff and the debating team. At present his future plans are as yet undecided ranging anywhere from becoming a doctor, lawyer, politician or at least an educated bum. Watch out world, here comes Dave!

JOHN LANE

John has been commuting to Vancouver College from Dunbar for nine years. He is a founding member of the VCDT and is general manager of the JLPH. His hobbies include brain surgery, social gatherings at the JLPH, dances, soccer and bicycles. John plans to work for a few years before attending a major medical institution in the U.S. after which he hopes to open the first brain surgery clinic on the Aleutian Islands.

SVEN LINCKE

Sven came to Vancouver College in grade eight via South Africa and Richmond. During his five years here he has been involved in many aspects of school life. Three years in the school band climaxed with the Spring Tour to Montreal in 1982, and since then he has been active in the Beefeater Band highlighted by the summer tour of Great Britain in 1983. Although not directly involved in sports, Sven has often been seen supporting the 'Fighting Irish' teams instead. Briefcase Man's strongest subjects are the sciences, but he handles all subjects with interest. His aim in life is to be rich and to own a Porsche. After graduation he hopes to obtain his diploma in engineering at a hometown German technical school.

DAVID ANTHONY JANSEN

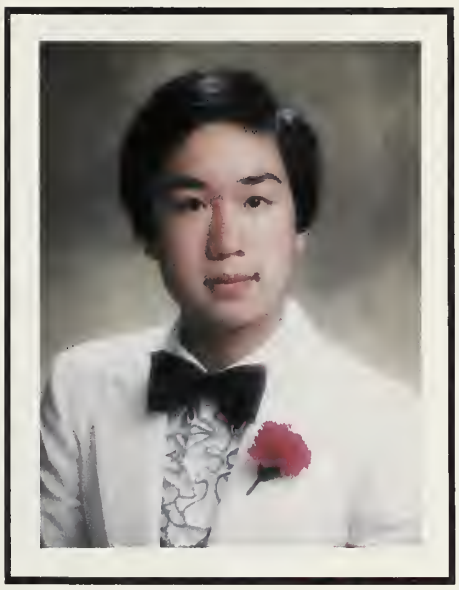
David has been under the watchful eyes of the Christian Brothers since Grade 7, and throughout his six-year stay has worked hard to stay on the honor role. During the last two years he was manager of the Varsity football and track teams. David joined the Yearbook in Grade 11 and was chosen Editor-in-Chief for the 1984 Collegian. Out-of-school interests include music, reading, skiing and racquetball. After graduation, David plans to further his education, possibly in the field of commerce. David credits the Brothers, his teachers and friends for making his stay at the College extremely enjoyable and satisfying.

ALFRED SIU KEI LING

A proclaimed pacifist, Alfred invisibly slipped into Vancouver College eight years ago. He has been known as "The Nip" ever since he took a science class with Mr. Kavalec. During his stay at V.C., Alfred has been involved in the Collegian, Football, and student council for which he served as Treasurer. He would like to thank all the teachers and Brothers who have helped him to become an "Educated Christian Gentleman." Besides studying, he enjoys playing golf and taking photographs of pretty girls. Upon graduation, he plans to take a science program at U.B.C.

TYLER LORENZ

Since Tyler's "stylish" entry into the infamous halls of V.C. in grade six from St. Paul's School in Richmond, he has devoted a major part of his College life to the athletic side of schooling, participating in all levels of the football program, in Varsity track and tennis. On the cultural side Tyler participated in the musical West Side Story. His stay at V.C. has been most memorable especially for the most rewarding experience of being able to attend the Leadership Conference at Notre Dame University. In the future Tyler would like to take Criminology at S.F.U. and persue a career in the R.C.M.P.



RODERICK KING CHUNG MA

Rod came to V.C. five years ago from O.L.P.H. elementary school. During his stay here, he has become an avid tennis player and a member of the tennis team. In an effort to leave his mark on the school, he has also become a member of this year's Collegian staff. While Rod has consistently achieved a high academic standing, he can often be found playing tennis, fishing, listening to music or skiing on the slopes of some mountain. Next year he plans to enter the faculty of Science at U.B.C. with a possible career in medicine in his sights.

CHRISTOPHER ROBERT MARTIN

Chris, a native of Vancouver, started at College in grade four and has been here ever since. While studies take up some of his time, he enjoys sailing, fast cars, music and reading in his spare time. He likes playing the occasional game of tennis and cycling. Other interests include working with computers and electronics. This year he hopes to make the honour role, then to continue his education at U.B.C. in the field of Engineering.

HANY PETER MALEK

Another Richmond resident, Hany has been commuting from Richmond to V.C. ever since grade nine. Since then he has been active in the student council during his senior year and has been active in other activities in his time at College. His favourite hobbies are watching the occasional movie, listening to rock music and playing football and basketball with his friends. In his spare time he also enjoys skiing in the winter and swimming on the beaches of B.C. in the summer. Hany would also like to thank the entire staff of the College for molding him into what he is today.

MARK A. MATJASEC

Since the eighth grade Mark has been commuting from Richmond to attend Vancouver College. He has enjoyed his five year stay at the College where he has made many new friends. Mark's interests include ice hockey, badminton, sport fishing, skiing and music. Upon graduation he will spend some time traveling about Europe and visiting relatives. When he returns he plans to find a job and work for a year before taking up educational persuits again. Eventually, he hopes to attend B.C.I.T. or U.B.C. to take up law or business.

STEVEN MACMILLAN

Steve came to V.C. in grade nine from St. Andrew's English School in Santiago, Chile. He is actively involved in sports, but concentrates most of his efforts on tennis, which he practices every day. Steve plans to further his education at the university of British Columbia somewhere in the area of economics.

JOHN DAVID MCCUE

John has been travelling to College for four years from the remote outskirts of Tsawwassen and White Rock. During his stay at V.C. he participated in school intramurals and supported the "Fighting Irish" basketball team. In his spare time, John can be found skiing at Whistler, playing raquetball or attending rock concerts. He has many fond memories of V.C. such as the Shaughnessey runs on a rainy, Monday morning. He plans to take architure at U.B.C. after graduation.

BRIAN MACDONALD

Brian has been levitating to Vancouver College since grade nine. Abandoning his hopes of becoming a professional librarian, he actively participated in the football program. When not attending one of Brother Basil's Saturday morning parties, he can be seen up at Whistler cooking with or taking a dip in a hot tub with Dave. His aggressive style of skiing has been copied and is now being taught to special Olympians around the world. His future plans include University, travel and a P.Y.T. Brian would like to thank his mother for her understanding and support.

PAUL MACMULLIN

Paul has been catching the bus from sunny Tsawwassen since grade seven. He played football and basketball for the "Irish" in grades 8 and 9, but his main sports interest is soccer which he has been playing in Tsawwassen for his own team. To his friends he is mainly known for his mother's homemade cookies for which he trades for food from the resident students. He also holds the record for coming to school without wearing a proper shirt from October 19, 1982 to the end of school, excluding exam days. Paul has become the most battered person in school as he is always picking fights with his friends or the resident students. After graduation, he hopes to further his education in the field of aviation.

KEVIN JAMES MCHUGH

Kevin was born in St. John, New Brunswick, arriving in Vancouver nine years ago by way of Toronto and Saskatoon. Coming from public school in grade eight he has walked the halls of V.C. ever since. He played football for four years, playing center for the last two. Kevin enjoys life in general, but especially on weekends when he always has a good time. His future plans include studying Kinesiology at S.F.U., eventually going into research physiology. His lifetime goal is to spend his summers in Florida and his winter at Whistler.

J. PAUL MCNEILL

J.P. has been making the journey from Tsawwassen to College since he came first in grade six. He has taken part in school activities especially soccer which he played in grades 8 and 9 and again in his senior year he played on the Varsity Soccer team. In his spare time he enjoys rock music, baseball soccer, skiing, beaches and summertime. On the otherhand he doesn't enjoy Mondays, homework, Algebra, and French. After graduation he intends to attend university to take psychology, probably Abnormal Psyc. after observing his peers at Vancouver College.

KEVIN MCKENNA

Six years ago, Kevin came from Sacred Heart elementary and has been commuting from sunny Tsawwassen ever since. Throughout his stay he has participated in minor sports and has been able to keep his 'B' average. Outside of school Kevin's interests are golf, bowling, table tennis and driving. Currently he is ranked 3rd in the province for his age-class in bowling. Unfortunately, Kevin hasn't had as much luck in golf, but is content just to get his handicap down. His other interests include enjoying both movies and girls. After graduation, Kevin will further his education at a university yet to be determined.

STUART CHRISTOPHER MORRIS

Stuart has attended V.C. since grade eight. During this time he has been on the track team, and has played on the varsity soccer team. He has maintained a "B" average throughout his time at V.C. His interests lie mainly in sports, especially soccer and skiing, but he also enjoys stereos and rock. Stuart hopes to attend U.B.C. in the engineering department, but his ultimate career goal is to own his own sports' store.

ANDREW MUEHLBAUER

Every day since Andy started to take the bus from Richmond to College four years ago, he has always enjoyed it. While he has plenty of interests, his favourite is music. During my time at V.C., he has spent a lot of Sunday afternoons devoted to either practicing guitar or drums by myself or with a band. As soon as he gets home from school, the "tunes" get turned-on. He tries to be active in St. Joseph the Worker Parish and rarely misses a dance in the parishes around Richmond and Vancouver. After graduation he plans to continue his education in university in order to someday become an orthodontist.

DOUGLAS A. MULDER

Doug came to Vancouver College in grade eight from James Gilmore Elementary in Richmond. In his time spent here he has participated in the V.C. Swim Team, track and in Mr. Olson's awesome strip. In his free time Doug can be found swimming, listening to music, bicycling or watching whatever is on T.V. In the future Doug plans to put his lifeguarding skills to work, drive and own a conveyance and continue his education in one of the fields of communications, or the study of embyryology in the Malagasy Republic.

JOSEPH FRANCIS MICHAEL OLMA

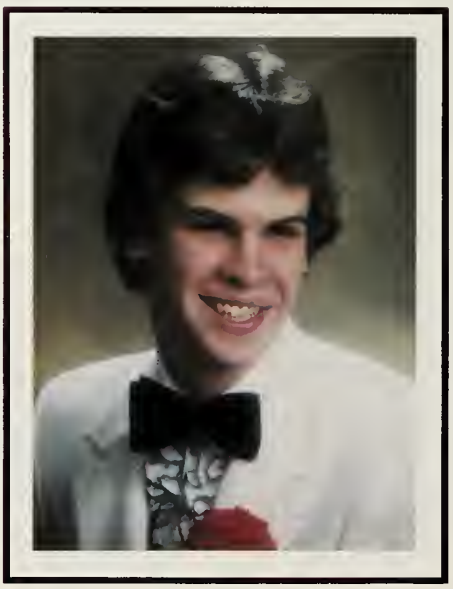
Joe came to College from the boonies of Tsawwassen in grade 7, where he was shown the ropes of V.C. by Mr. Kim. Since then he has become wrapped up in whatever the school had to offer from yearbook to leadership conferences in Notre Dame, to President of the student body. When not at some sort of meeting, Joe can be found on the football field or practising his wrestling tactics in the gym. He holds many fond memories of wrestling trips throughout the province, school trips to France and weekend Whistlers excursions. In the future Joe plans to attend McGill University to study the field of medicine. God bless the grads of '84 -- they need it.

DANIEL RONALD MYETTE

Dan came to V.C. in grade ten as a resident student. During his time here, he became totally involved with football on the J.V. level and stayed with it through the Varsity program. When not playing football or weightlifting, Dan may be found skiing, playing sports or just living it up at the nearest party. After graduation Dan plans to further his athletic and academic capabilities at S.F.U. or a college of his choice.

JOHN PATRICK JOSEPH OLSON

John began his life at College in grade seven after leaving Our Lady of Perpetual Help School. While John was at V.C., he participated in football and basketball in his early years and played hockey in his senior year in which he became known as the "Rib Wrecker". John has also been known as the "Esso Man" because of his four years at a gas station fixing his friend's cars. He enjoys skiing, hockey and girls. He hopes to enter U.B.C. next year and take a program in the Arts.



JONXU SABIN ORMAECHEA

Jon has been roaming the halls of V.C. since grade three, trying to keep himself busy by studying or attempting to commit mischievious acts. He has been commuting to V.C. faithfully from Vancouver East, where in his spare time Jon races bicycles, watches and praises girls and exotic cars and plots terrorist acts. After graduation, he plans to take a year off school to work and travel, then after his extended vacation, he intends to take a course in computer technology and business management. Jon thanks his friends for their support and company and his Mom and Dad for all their efforts and support over the years.

PETER EVANGELOS PAPAMICHAEL

Peter came to V.C. in grade eight from St. Augustine's elementary. One of his after-school past-times for the last two years has been working in the yearbook darkroom doing endless print requests. Peter's favourite hobbies include cycling, reading science fiction, and playing any organ or synthesizer he can get his hands on. His future plans include furthering his education in music and science at an American college in Greece for a year. He then plans to return home to continue his education at a college or university of his choice.

VANTHO PHAVONGKHAM

A parishoner of Sts. Peter and Paul, Vantho came to V.C. six years ago from Laos. In his spare time he likes drawing and playing the guitar. He also enjoys playing soccer, volleyball and basketball. After school he can often be found with Msgr. Nichol and Sparkey, driving his car and being generally helpful. At present his future plans are not finalized, but he hopes eventually to own a sports car, a big house and to make enough money to travel all over the world. Vantho would like to express his gratitude to the Brothers and teachers at V.C.

KEVIN RANKIN

Another import from Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Kevin has been commuting from Point Grey to College since grade 8. While he has taken an interest in all the curricular, extra-curricular and post-curricular activities at V.C., he has been most closely associated with the school band. In his spare time he enjoys playing the trumpet and listening to music. Next year, Kevin plans to continue his studies at a college or university yet to be determined unless the wanderlust grips him and he is forced to travel.

NIALL PATRICK

Niall came to Vancouver College in grade seven from Maple Grove Elementary School. Since then he has been making the long trek from Richmond every day for the past six years. His interests include most sports, but especially hockey and soccer, which he played for North Richmond the last two years. Other interests include the sciences and computers, although his best subjects have always been Math and French, even though he doesn't like French. Next year, he doesn't have any definite plans about going to university, but he may go to B.C.I.T. to further his science education.

ADRIAN POL

Adrian "Herc" Pol came to Vancouver College in his grade 11 year from Merritt, B.C. He was a resident student which made it possible for him to participate in football, wrestling, track and all the activities he could take part in. In the future Adrian hopes to increase his athletic and academic capabilities at a college or university as yet undetermined.

PHILIP RAPHAEL

Philip has been making the daily trip from Richmond to Vancouver College for the past five years. Although he came here first in grade eight, he was born in East London and moved to Canada when he was nine years old. His favourite sport was soccer and he played midfield on the Varsity Soccer Team. Although his favourite soccer team is West Ham United, a natural for any east Londoner, but he will always be loyal to the purple and gold of the "Fighting Irish". After graduation He hopes to further his education in the field of journalism with the idea of returning to his native England to become a Fleet Street journalist. His ambition in life is to become a famous writer, become rich, retire young and play for West Ham United F.C.

MARK RATTÉE

Mark entered the College in grade four, and has enjoyed the past nine years. In that time he has made many good friends which he hopes to keep in the future. In school he participated in the debating team Outside of school, Mark enjoys badminton, skiing, golf, improving his skills in TAE KWON DO, and pumping lots of quarters into Arcade games, however, Mark's favourite activity is laughing. In the future he hopes to work, enter university and become a lawyer.

KEVIN ROBERTS

A "Rainmaker" from Prince Rupert, Kevin came to V.C. in grade ten from Prince Rupert Junior Secondary as a resident student. After wrestling for three years, he received his Varsity letter. He also played on the hockey team which kept him busy through the winter. His other sporting interests included football and skiing. While he doesn't have any real hobbies as such, he is pleased with his academic accomplishment at College. After graduation he plans to take a year off school to work in the Prince Rupert area after which he will return to Vancouver for a university program at U.B.C.

MARK ROLLER

Mark has been attending Vancouver College for the past seven years having entered in grade 6. During these years, he has been making the long trek from desolate Richmond by bus. Mark has been a member of various basketball teams and other worthy organizations. Upon graduation, he intends to attend U.B.C. where he will enroll in the faculty of science. Eventually, he hopes to enter the field of electrical or electronic engineering.

WALTER RAWLINSON

Wally has been attending V.C. since grade 8. Most of the time he could be seen doing numerous things including: playing base sax in the school band, taking off to York House at lunch, getting in car accidents with "Clyde", playing games on the school's computers, and trying to get to Mr. Sponza's Geography class on time. This year Wally was Fine Arts Editor and assisted in the Elementary section of the Collegian. In the future Wally plans to further his education at a college in the field of business and computers.

STUART ROBINSON

Stuart came to V.C. from Immaculate Conception (Delta) in grade eight. Since then he has participated in soccer in grades 9 and 12 and student council in grades 10, 11, and 12 while maintaining a "B" average in the academic area. Basketball, however, was his major attraction, playing it since his arrival in grade 8 until graduation. Fond memories of basketball stretch to as far out places as Calgary, Kelowna, and Nanaimo. Stu's other interests include tennis, swimming, and doing absolutely nothing on the beach. In the immediate future, Stuart plans to attend U.B.C.'s faculty of Science, while his long range plans include the University of Hawaii and large sums of money.

NICK SERKA, R.I.P.

Nick would have graduated this June and been part of the graduating class of 1984, but God took him from us. The news of his death shocked everyone who knew him. Nick was a quiet student at V.C. although he was always ready to stand up for his own point of view and beliefs. He was to play goal for the varsity soccer team, a challenge he looked forward to. As a friend he was always around when you needed help, eager and willing to sort out a problem. He never seemed down or depressed, but always seemed to be happy, cheerful and optimistic. He was always quick with a smile and a joke when greeted, a quality greatly appreciated by many. Nick will be missed by his classmates, his teachers, his friends and above all by his parents and family. May he rest in peace. (by Philip Raphael)

JAMES PAUL ROSE

Paul, whose family has been going to College for two generations, came to V.C. from the small community of Quilchena located fifteen miles east of Merritt. Since he came to Vancouver, Paul had to adjust to the ups and down life of a Resident Student. The time he spent here balanced with the much more private life of home. During his free time from school and off the job back home, he enjoys all sports of which his favourites include skiing, hockey, golf, and partying; all to be done with friends in a relaxed atmosphere. His future plans are not yet finalized.

STEVEN RUSKEY

Steve from St. Andrew's Parish attended St. Andrew's Elementary School before coming to College in grade 8. His interests are in the biological sciences, and his hobbies are coin collecting and building airplane replicas. His academic achievements are considerable winning the Canadian History Award in grade eleven and by passing Mr Kavalec's Biology 11. On leaving V.C. I will probably pursue a zoological career, but before that I plan to organize a Coup that will kick Castro out of Cuba, then go on to promote a new Russian Revolution thus eradicating the Communist Cancer from the face of the earth.

ERIC SAARNI

Eric came to College in grade eight from David Oppenheimer Elementary School. An avid watcher of the N.F.L., his hobbies are X-country skiing and playing fantasy-role games such as "Dungeons and Dragons". Every year with the exception of his senior year, Eric played in the school band. As of now, he doesn't know what he will be doing after he graduates, but he hopes eventually to make his way to university.

DAVID J. SEADON

Another Tsawwassen native, Dave came to College in grade eight, making the long trek from the south everyday . . . almost. While he has participated in football and track and field, his big sport was wrestling for which he won his letter in grade ten. If possible he would like to carry on his wrestling at the university level. When not in school Dave can be found at Whistler either digging the O's jeep out of the ditch or hanging from the chair lift with his cosmic friend, Brian. All year Dave has been acting as the Fighting Finnigan doing crazy things at pep rallys and football and basketball games. In the future Dave would like to buy Whistler and ski Mount Everest. Failing this he will have to become a nuclear physicist for the Russians.

BRENT R. SENNEWALD

Brent, a native of Kamloops, came to College in grade 11 from John Patterson Senior-Junior Secondary School. Prior to that he attended St. Ann's Academy in the Cathedral Parish of Kamloops. A loyal fan of the Irish, he has endured two years of life as a resident student in McCormack Hall. After grad, Brent's plans include travel, then study at a post-secondary institution yet to be decided upon.

CHRISTOPHER SEPPELT

Chris, the future cop, came to V.C. for his last year, transferring from St. Thomas More Collegiate in Burnaby. Chris ran cross-country and track and field for the Irish and plays baseball for Coquitlam during the summer months. After graduation, he will most likely attend S.F.U. for criminology and psychology before joining the Vancouver City Police Force. Chris enjoyed his last year at V.C. and thought the guys were really easy to get along with. Other hobbies of Chris include sun-tanning at Kits' beach and playing raquetball as well as watching the Hill Street Blues. Before he attends university, he plans to spend some time travelling through Europe.

MARCO R. SPAGNOL

Coming from St. Paul's School, Marco has been attending Vancouver College since grade 8. During his stay he has participated in track and cross-country in his senior years. In his spare time he can be found pumping iron in the swamplands of Richmond or just bumming around with his friends. Among his main interests are skiing, parties, socializing with girls and going to every dance possible. Marco also enjoys going to good concerts and playing a good game of football. After graduation he plans to further his education and eventually to work at the Boeing Company and own an exotic sports car.

JOHN H. STAUB

John came to V.C. as a resident student in grade eleven. During his enjoyable stay, he has been involved with such activities as wrestling, track, and football through which he became a letterman. In his grad year, John had the privilege of representing homeroom 124 as treasurer. Future plans call for going home and taking a year off before furthering his education at a university or College of his choice.

CHRISTOPHER S.W. TANG

Chris had been attending Vancouver College since he left his home in Petaling Jaya, West Malaysia, two years ago. His home parish is the Church of Saint Francis Xavier and his previous school was the La Salle Secondary School -- both are in Petaling Jaya. Among his favourite interests are British New Wave music and seeing new sights in Vancouver, which is still fairly alien to him. His sports accomplishments have been with the Varsity tennis and soccer teams. In the future Chris aims to get a degree in Business Administration at S.F.U.

JAMES SPRY

After completing six years at St. Augustine's Elementary School, Jim started stomping the hallowed halls of V.C. from grade 7 on. His keen interest in photography led him to participate in the yearbook, and in his final year he became manager of the Dark Room. His other interests are model building, listening to music, reading and movies, plus owning his own "wheels". Jim's academic achievement is to graduate and then enter into the field of photography at Langara or U.B.C. In the future he would like to take up flying and scuba diving, and also to get as far away as possible from the likes of the teachers at V.C., Ha! Ha! Ha!

AUGUSTO JAIME JALBUENA SYJUCO III

Augusto commenced his Vancouver College days in grade six after making the long trek from the Phillippines. Although he actively participated in basketball from grade seven, Augusto decided to focus his efforts on his studies for his last two years in high school. Off campus, his interests range from music and art to mechanics. After graduation, Augusto would much rather wander through Europe, but instead, will persue his studies at either M.I.T. for engineering or Stanford for Journalism.

THOMAS TROUGHTON

Tom, a member of Immaculate Conception parish, came to V.C. in grade eight from Immaculate Conception Elementary. While participating in the soccer program whenever it existed, he has over the years maintained a "B" average. Outside of school his interests are mainly sports, cars and music. He also enjoys going out with his friends and having a good time. After grad, he hopes to be able to persue an engineering course at U.B.C. Looking further into the future he hopes to be relatively successful in the business world, get married and live a good life.

MICHAEL CHRISTOPHER YOBLONSKI

Chris has been coming to V.C. from Tsawwassen since grade eight. He has participated in football, track and field, and has played on the school's hockey team. Outside of school his hobbies include arguing about politics, listening to the Beatles, and playing his guitar. In the future Chris hopes to attend an Eastern American university to play hockey and study political science and languages. His ultimate goal is to write a book entitled, "The Ultimate Dictator" based on his own life as a corrupt generalisimo in South America.

RICHARD WALTER

Richard has been making the daily expedition to V.C. from Richmond since entering College in grade seven. During his six year stay he has enjoyed participating in many College activities and has enjoyed all facets of College life. Outside of school, he has many varied interests including high performance cars and sports such as golf and basketball. After graduating he plans to go into the field of Commerce or Accounting.

JAMES VINT

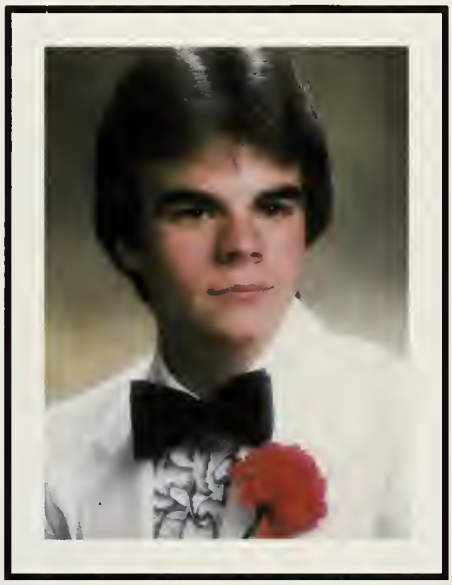
James has spent a number of years attending V.C. (almost too many). For the past five years, he has accompanied the zombies on the bus from Richmond to school daily. A native of Richmond, he passes his time by going to the Mall or wherever there are people (at parties). His elementary schooling was spent at St. Paul's where he obtained a strong religious background. During grades 8, 9, and 10 he was unknown and uninvolved, but in grades 11 and 12 he became more involved in his community and school, although he still remains unknown to whoever. James considers it his goal in life to do something worthwhile so that he will be able to look back on his life with pride.

KEVIN MICHAEL JOSEPH WISEMAN

Kevin was sentenced to Vancouver College after serving 7 years in Ecole Saint Sacrament. A founding member of the V.C.D.T. and the V.C.T.T., Kevin can usually be found pinting Tobys at D.D.D.'s. He likes acting having participated in the V.C.L.F.A. musicals: West Side Story and Guys and Dolls. After graduation, Kevin plans to work a year or two then travel around Europe. After his return, he will go into business for himself.

RICHARD VON GEYER

Richard, a native of Manchester, England, moved to Canada when he was twelve. He lived in Pointe Claire, Quebec, for two years, where he attended St. Thomas High School. After moving to North Vancouver, he first came to College in grade ten. In sports he enjoys playing soccer and has played for a few teams. While he enjoys watching international soccer, he is a supporter of Manchester United. After grad, he hopes to get into the field of graphic and visual arts (such as advertising).



MARTIN JOSEPH URBANOWSKI

Martin came to V.C. in grade eight from Ecole Saint Sacrament. Over the years at College, "Marty" has been in various activities including participating for two years on the track team and being the trainer for the senior soccer team. After graduation he plans to take up a computer program or become a paramedic.

GRADE FIVE

With David Nanthanson as class president and Toby Wadsworth as vice-president the enthusiastic and zealous grade five class enhanced the tremendous spirit alive at V.C. in their own unique way. St. Paul tells us that the word of God is alive and active. This is exactly the overall atmosphere that prevails throughout the grade five class. Contributing greatly to the walkathon and trying to race Brother Costello to the finish they have shown that within them exists that unfathomable potential to become that well rounded person that only with the help of God, their teacher's and especially their parents they can become.

GRADE SIX

This year's grade six class is a very enthusiastic, eager, cooperative class who excell in many areas. Any school cause, be it Walkathon, school ads, or raffles they are totally supportive. Their chief interest is in being proclaimed "number one." In an academic sense many excell. Among the favourite subjects is Drama. Approximately one third of the class are also lending their talents to the school band so well led by the incredible Mr. Olson.

CREATIVE WRITING . . .

THE GREATEST BUCCANEER ALIVE

This is the tale of a pirate brave,
Gallant, strong and free,
His shirt as red as poppies,
And black pants to his knee.

A cutlass hanging at his thigh,
A musket in his hand,
He was the fear of merchant ships
That sailed from England.

It was one day that this pirate brave,
Was sailing 'pon the seas,
When lo. to the port a merchant ship,
Was sailing brisk and free,

This pirate brave informed his crew,
And to this ship they went,
With cutlasses drawn they went to fight,
For they knew their gold was spent.

With sailed pulled tight, the rudder turned,
The scope hanging o'er the side,
The cannons polished the guns loaded,
As they drifted with the tide.

They met, these crews, and the cannons flew,
And sabers clashed in the sun,
But though the pirates fought gallantly,
By the merchant ships were out done.

That is the tale of a pirate brave,
Gallant, strong, and free,
His shirt as red as poppies,
And black pant to his knee.

TOGETHERNESS

The class president of Grade 81 is Don Deippese, supported by Simon Scully as vice-president and by a very energetic secretary-treasurer Paul Bach, who is always heard shouting "Dough, dough for the missions!" in the morning before homeroom period. These high-spirited young people did a marvellous job in getting one of the highest pledged walkathon totals in the entire school this year. They also demonstrated the existence of a strong, friendly atmosphere and togetherness when the students organized a luncheon together on the last Friday before the Christmas exams week.

CARING

Class 82 above all, cares for others who are less fortunate than they are. Mr. Budai says that his class is one of the best in the school at obtaining money and food for those in need.

Class 82 is not overly athletic, though they do try their hardest, which is more important. Though they haven't won many games sports-wise, it is often the slow starters who wind up first.

The class officers for 1983-1984 were; Allan Frankland, president, Glen Davies, vice president, and Ken McLeod, treasurer.

POWER

Homeroom 83's characteristics contribute greatly to Vancouver College and the tradition of the "Fighting Irish". The majority of 83's pupils are involved in some way with the school's sports teams. When not playing, they enjoy exhibiting their boisterous class spirit at pep-rallies and football games. 83 led in money pledged for the school's annual walkathon at the high school level.

Aside from sports and social functions, the class finds time to maintain an average academic standard. The Class is guided by Mr. Choo and Brother Keilty. They encourage the class to further their interests in both sports and academics. 83 derives their "Power" from their enthusiasm and exuberance, which in turn leads to the success of this class. Because of this, 83 is proud to be called a part of the "Fighting Irish"!

CHALLENGE

Homeroom 93 is characterized by exuberance, uncontrolled enthusiasm, overwhelming activity, and gusto for life. This class is led by the exemplary behavior of Polisi (president), Jasich (vice-president), and Schenk (treasurer). With all this taken into consideration, homeroom 93 is deserving of the title which they have come to be known by in the places that count: THE CHALLENGE!

PARTICIPANTS

It's hard to characterize a group as diverse as the gentlemen of Homeroom 103, since they contributed in so many ways to the life of the school. They took part in track, football, basketball, and wrestling as players and managers, and were consistently in contention for top honors in intramurals. They led the grade 10 classes in Walkathon collections, and were one of the top classes in the high schools in missions. They helped, with the other grade 10's, to bring back to life the thunder and power of Irish spirit both at pep rallies and games. Maybe, after all, it's not so hard to characterize them - they were participants, not observers, and the school was richer for their presence.

PROWESS

Back in September, Mr. Sponza felt he was sure that he would have his hands full when he noticed these 36 "smiling" faces. As it turned out, not only were they abundant in number, but also in enthusiasm. Led by president Mark Brown, homeroom 104 exhibited the Finnegan Spirit as participants and spectators to all school activities. The class showed prowess not only in athletic events, but also in academic achievements.

COOPERATIVE

Homeroom 113 began the school year as twenty-three individual students. It has since jelled into a unit led by class president Derreck Mckinnon, vice-president Mark Sartin, and treasurer Ryan Mahwinney. The class has a variety of talents: academic, athletic, social, and religious. However, hard work and a serious attitude towards studies have not kept the students from having fun. An outstanding characteristic of the class is its cooperative spirit which springs from the motto the class has adopted: ECG, namely, to strive to be Educated Christian Gentlemen.

OUTGOING

Homeroom 114 is an enthusiastic bunch. They have participants in all facets of College life, including both sports and academics. This class has a special sense of the "Irish Spirit", partly due to the fact that Br. Hancock was himself a College grad. These boys reflect an impressive, outgoing attitude, brought upon them by their years here at the college. The boys in this class prove to be an asset to the College, and the College way of life.

RESIDENT STUDENTS

V.C.'s Resident students are a unique group of young men from places near and far -- Vancouver being the nearest and Malasia being the farthest. While the majority of the inmates of McCormack Hall are from the interior of B.C., the largest single contingent is from our neighbouring province of Alberta, around Edmonton to be exact. The faculty moderators are Brothers Basil, Kielty, and MacKenzie, and the student moderators (both College grads) are Paul Smolders and Liam Coughlan. In addition a number of the Brothers assist with supervision in the dorm or at studyhall; these are Brothers McNiven, Burton, English, Hancock, Costello, and Rowland. Over the years the Resident students have contributed considerably to building a more cosmopolitan atmosphere in the school.

"They say losing builds a lot of character, and you could say we built of lot of character", stated Sean Giefing at the Varsity Football Awards Banquet. It is true that the Irish lost some tough battles this year, but on the playing field one could never say they were beaten. Led by captains Kevin Clarke, Sean Giefing, Mike Antoniazzi and Geoff Gray-Grant, one found, in the mud and the slop, some of the most driving determination ever witnessed at V.C. Technically, they lost because the scoreboard said so, but overall they were winners. Not many losing teams produce 4 all stars and send 7 players to the B.C. Lions football camp. Members of a losing team would not dedicate their time and effort in the summer months running and weightlifting. Nor would devoted coaches like Mr. R. Hallam, Mr. J. Burke and Mr. P. Toth spend many extra hours for the betterment of the team if they believed they were working with players who didn't want to win. Yes, the team wanted to win, but, what was more important, was that they gained from their experiences. The 1984 Irish Football Club did not produce a losing team; it developed men.

Good luck to next year's squad.

This year's Fighting Irish Junior Varsity Football team was a complete success in all aspects. While capturing the Skyline League championship and a berth in the Junior Bowl,they compiled an impressive record of 11 wins and 2 losses. The coaches of the team were Jim Canil, who coached the offensive backs; Mark Cordic, who worked the defensive backs and receivers; and Jay Prepchuck who coached the line. Although none of the coaches were on staff at the College, their dedication and spirit were truly an inspiration for the team. The on field performances were marked by a tenatious defense lead by outstanding lineman Eddy Dino and most inspirational player and linebacker Matt Clarke, and an explosive offense lead by coach's award winner Dean "HJ" Heffring. Thanks not only to the coaches but to the managers and fans who also helped to make such an enjoyable season.

The grade eight football season could probably best be described as a learning experience for all concerned. The players learned that despite the super interest and effort they displayed throughout the season, this alone does not win games. They learned that the real reward of hardwork and dedication is satisfaction in having done one's best. So, while the students did not meet with success in term of winning any of their games, they did meet with success in another very important area - namely, that of character development.

The Collegian would like to commend these young men on the dedication that they displayed throughout the season to both the program and the school.

WRESTLING '84

The 1983-84 Irish Wrestling Team came up with the best results for a Vancouver College Wrestling team in the last decade. Placing 7th in the S.F.U. invitational and 7th in the Port Alberni invitational, 9 wrestlers from V.C. qualified for the B.C. High School Wrestling Championships held at Carson Graham: Cory Smith, Lacky Benning, Ralph "Godfather" Cirencione, Joe Olma, Kevin Roberts, Robert Harding, Craig Duggan, Rob Repolusk and Adrian Pol. Going into the B.C.'s, V.C. was one of the favorites to place in the Top 10. Lacky Benning and Adrian Pol were both seaded in the top 4 in their respective weight classes, but Adrian was unable to compete due to a back injury. Lacky managed a 5th place finish, as did Rob Repolusk, a first year wrestler, who wrestled impressively. With almost the whole team returning for the 1984-85 season, Coach Anderson and his wrestlers will be a team to watch next year.

1983-84 will be remembered as the year of the "just abouts". The highlights of the season would be the championship trophies for the Handsworth Classic, the Nanaimo Xmas Classic, and our own League Championship which gave the team post season play at B.C.I.T. where we "just about" beat King George (83-82) and then "just about" beat John Oliver (85-83). The season's record was 17 and 13. In spite of the lack of height the team managed to play some very exciting basketball and the intensity and skill of the"Fighting Irish" proved too much for many top ranked teams. Good luck to all of the graduating athletes and we hope that you continue to enjoy the game.

The J.V. Basketball team started the season by travelling to the Prince Rupert tourney and losing in the championship game to the home team in front of 500 people. During their own Emerald, the team won by gaining revenge on Prince Rupert and then overpowering Nanaimo in the final. The Irish continued their winning form, topping the Independant League with a perfect 6 & 0 record. Mark Reid and Bill Bailey were key defensive players. Mark Bragagnolo, John Donald, Matt Clarke and Szilard Fricska led the even attack of the Irish. Rebounds were provided by Kris Kucera, while Keiron McConnel, Mike Guthrie, Derek Levelt and Mike Stradiotti provided powerful relief. Consistent shooting from Craig Burns and Paul Mrazek also helped the team. The team placed 4th in the Provincial Final, losing to the eventual winners of the tournament from Vernon. The coaching of Mr. Choo and his assistant, Mr. Claven was a key factor in the Irish success, as was the help provided by managers Gordon and Charlie Byrn. The team also thanks all the fans who provided strong support throughout the season.

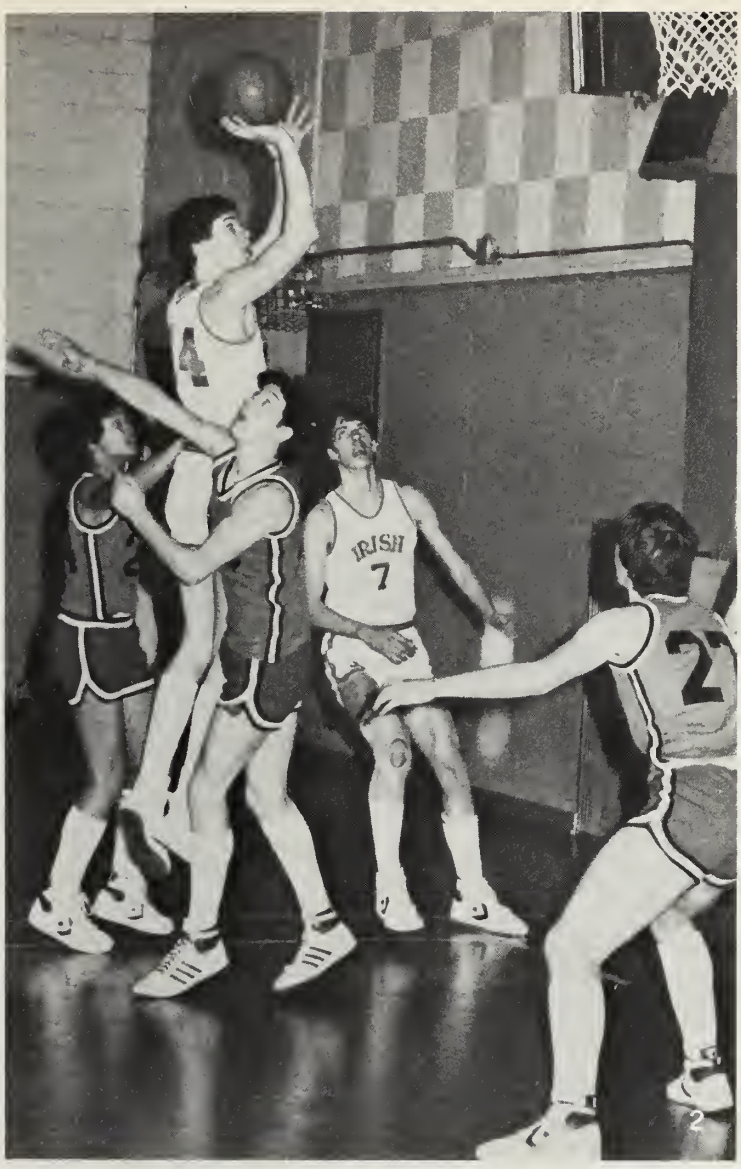
This year's grade nine basketball team which the coach, Mr. Kavalec describes as . . . "the best grade 9 team at V.C. in the last fifteen years", has an outstanding record: 25 win, 1 loss and that to Bellingham. The team entered three tournaments and won three tournaments: Abbotsford, New Westminister and V.C.'s own Grade Nine Emerald Tournament. The outstanding game of the year was at the Emerald Tournament where the team beat Lynden High School from Washington State 79-52 in the final game. In the Independent School League the team was undefeated. The trophy winners for this year's team are: Outstanding Player -- Jay Alvarez; Most Inspirational Player -- Bart Hall, and the Most Improved Player -- Angus MacFarlane. With teams like this coming up, V.C.'s basketball future is in good hands!



1) Even in the fourth quarter, the grade nines stay tough; of course, after Coach Kavalec's pep talk. 2) Paulo Montessori shoots amidst a crowd of opposing players. 3) Foul! No. 9! 4) Jay Alvarez keeps his cool while dribbling the ball. 5) The Irish jump high but fall just short of their goal - the ball!

GRADE EIGHT BASKETBALL

This year's grade eight basketball team could best be described as a giant success, in the sense that their performance far exceeded the expectations of all concerned. Although the players on our team were very often outmatched in both size and weight, they did manage to finish the season with an admirable record of 25 wins and 9 losses. They finished second in the independent League with a 6-2 record, losing to Notre Dame twice by narrow margins. In tournament play the team placed in all but one of six tournaments, and as a result are able to boast two first place finishes, runner-up twice, and a third and fourth place finish. The only two teams that they were unable to conquer in the course of the season were Notre Dame and Hugh Boyd. However, the last match-up against each of these teams proved that in due time these two teams will also fall prey to this fine group of young Vancouver College athletes. R.C. Palmer, who managed to twice defeat our team by slim margins in the first part of the season, got thumped by 16 points in the final match-up of the season here at the College.

While the team did display a fair degree of finesse in competition, their success, for the most part, was due to their discipline, hard work and dedication. The determination of the players to excel was amply acknowledged and rewarded, since each of the starting five collected an award at some point over the course of the season. At the Wellington Tourney in Naniamo, John Reid was selected most valuable player and John Bailey was named to the all-star team. Kevin Stack was chosen as one of five all-stars at the Seaquam Tourney in North Delta, and here at our own V.C. Tourney, Malcolm Reid was selected to the all-star team, while Rob McKay collected the award for best defensive player in the championship game.

While contributions to the team were acknowledged periodically by individual awards, the members of this grade eight club can best be described as players who knew the meaning of team work. On two occasions they held their opponents to a mere 19 points, and once, with all members of the team making a contribution, they managed an impressive total of 75 points in one game.

The substitutes, who are critical to the success of any basketball team, were Paul Bach and Jimmy Dunn in the point-guard position, Anton Danielson, Adrian McKenzie and Chris Yong (the sixth man) in the wing guard positions, and Dan Deppiesse, Ray Olma and John O'Regan at forward. Each of these players made noteworthy contributions and showed great spirit and enthusiasm in fulfilling their role on the team. Also, critical to the functioning of any team are managers and statisticians. This dual role was handled magnificently - as the players to this can attest - by Andy Nathanson. The interest, hard work and dedication which he brought to the team can not be over-stated.

It must also be acknowledged that the contribution of the parents of the boys on the team was also an essential and intergral factor in the team's success. Without the many parents who willingly provided a seemingly endless source of transportation to and from games, and who unselfishly gave of their time to come out and support the team, none of this would have been possible. The school is in debt to them, as well as the players on the team.

Finally, recognition and appreciation are extended to the host of students who were responsible for putting together the grade eight tournament to which V.C. played host. The tournament director Brian Ewanchuk, his assistants (Simon Scully, Stephen Goepel, Carlo De Mello, Scott Bowland, Doug Charlton, Kevin McElroy, Joe Freidt.

Rabee Geronimo, Brendan McCabe, Philippe Doebeli, and many others, and all those who officiated either as referees or as timers and scorers, are to be commended for the selflessness which they displayed in assisting with the running of the grade eight V.C. Emerald Tourney.

In conclusion, let it suffice to say that the whole experience shall, properly, remain a memorable one.

SWIM TEAM - VICTORIA '83

This year the Fighting Irish Swim Team made waves in Victoria as they took part in the B.C.S.S. Provincial Swimming Championships last November 25-26, 1983. For the first time the team was headed by three relay teams. The boys' A200 medley relay as well as the A200 free relay of Ian Hylands, Bruce Carpenter, Turlough O'Hara and Adrian Robertson, all of grade ten, came 4th in both events. The boys' B200 medley relay of Doug Mulder, Graham Lenz (shut up I'm sleeping), Craig Mitchell and John Dyer placed third to capture a bronze medal. Doug Mulder of grade twelve placed 6th in 50 freestyle, 5th in 100m and 3rd in 100 freestyle, winning a bronze medal. Ian Hylands came 8th in 200m and Bruce Carpenter 5th in 100 back. Craig Mitchell placed 8th in 50 fly and 3rd in 50 Back, winning a bronze medal. The Swim Team for the second straight year has proven itself as a powerful "Major" sport. The team thanks the parents who are responsible for making this year another success.

TRACK AND FIELD 1984
THE CHARIOTS OF FIRE

Run, throw and jump, track and field is an ancient and simple sport. The Irish have brought themselves to a point where they seem ready to establish a dynasty of provincial domination.How has this happened?

Track has always been present at Vancouver College but it began to make real progress with Coach Greg Emry in the late '70's. When Coach Robert Hallam took over in 1980 things really began to roll. The completion of O'Hagan field and track in 1981 meant a tremendous boost to the vagabond Irish. Now they had an arena, and in the bunker, a home. Every year since has seen major improvement, culminating in last year's domination of the Independent Zone, winning of the Vancouver Relays and a third place finish in the Provincial Finals. This year the team looks even stronger and it's early season wins over tough American competition show that a first place Provincial title is a very strong possibility.

Still, how do you establish a winning tradition? For Coach Hallam the answer is simple: get as many students involved as possible, train them with the best methods available, and work, work, work. Enough hard work and athletes will develop their talents to the fullest; that makes them winners to themselves and with members like that a team becomes a winner.

There are other factors: the tough schedules that have hastened maturity; the participation in provincial and national competition outside the school; the building of a new improved weight room, completed by the generous time and labour of Coaches Doyle, Hallam and Canil; the untiring efforts of manager David Jansen and his assistants; the response of the staff to host meets and help withall the various duties; and most of all the very good support of the student body. In the end though, it all comes down to the individual and his desire to be a winner - to develop himself to the full limit of his abilities.

If the early succeses of the Irish Track and Field Team are any indication of what is to follow, the team is bound for glory for they are THE CHARIOTS OF FIRE.

1. Chris Seppelt leads the competition around the last corner of the 1500m. 2. Kurt Mohammed - the flying pole vaulter! 3. Doug Correa and Pat Guzman sprint for the finish line in the 100m. 4. Peter Desouza makes a beeline for the finish line at Swangard Stadiu. 5. After an easy workout, Carlos and Talino await their followers. 6. Frank Clarke, another Irish distance racer. 7.Bart Hull gives his best in the 100m. 8. Ivan Tsang goes for the gusto! 9. Carlos Amoranto - caught - as he breaks the school triple jump record. 10. Matt Clarke continues the College tradition of powerful javelin throwers. 11. Mr.Hallam gives directions to Dean and Craig.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

Today we honour those men and women who have fought our battles in foreign lands, who have served with honour, who have died in battle.

There are many words which come to mind when we think of Remembrance Day - words like sacrifice, patriotism, heroism, protection of our freedoms and beliefs - to mention just a few.

We at Vancouver College pause in unity with all Canadians to remember those who died and to pray for the victims of aggresion and inhumanity throughout the world. By this we are not glorifying the terrible act of war, those who died or served their country did not love war, they loved peace and all that flowed from peace.

This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world.

As we remember those who died to protect our freedom, let us ask ourselves what we are doing with this freedom which we have. Are we using it to put into practice our beliefs that all men are brothers and that everyone has the dignity of being a child of God?

FRENCH TOUR — SIMPLY BOGUS

At 8 pm on March 11, 22 students and 3 teachers from Vancouver College departed from Vancouver International Airport. Nine and one half hours later - 2:30 local time - the group landed in Paris, France. Thus began the 1984 V.C. "Tour de France"; a two week excursion that covered some 3,000 kilometres, via private coach, with stops in such places as Chartres, Tours, Bordeaux, Biarritz, Lourdes, Toulouse, Limoges and Versailles.

The object of the trip was the educational and cultural experience such a sojourn would produce. In fact they had not even arrived at their hotel when they discovered that Paris and its traffic had little similarity to their own. Narrow and congested streets, cars everywhere - both on the street and on the sidewalk! The vast Parisienne subway, "Le Metro", was experienced and found to be tres facile. Both in Paris and elsewhere historical sights such as cathedrals, shrines, chateaus and palaces were visited. Even though Wendy's and the Golden Arches were discovered, the French gastronomy was sampled and given top marks. A trip to France would not be complete if one omitted the country's wines. Their stay in Bordeaux included a tour of the wine growing region and a lesson in the art of wine tasting. The 'bouquet', 'legs' and 'full body' of the Medoc wines are well known to all of them. Anyone interested in a short lesson can contact Adrian or any of the tour members since they are know honourary Frenchmen - expert wine tasters.

The success of any trip can be evaluated by the number and quality of memorable incidents. The 1984 Tour receives A+ in this category! They're sure to remember "Benson" and "Billy Idol". How about the time and incident in Monmartre when Andy M. was labelled "You shtupid turist!" Their side trip to Spain also had memorable moments as they recall Larry's halo incident at the French-Spanish border and Vittorio's expertise in the country's language and foods. They definitely can't forget Rob and the Coca-Cola shortage that occurred shortly after they arrived. Even the chaperons - Mrs. Naas, Mr. Budai and Mr. Sponza - in years to come will remember their luncheon at the Tour d'Argent. We understand they almost ended up washing dishes! Just as memorable an experience was found at the disco in Biarritz. With the dancing style being different than in North America some of the boys learned to shadow dance - an advantage in itself, right Chris? If you're wondering what the Atlantic Ocean is like, ask Roddy or Graham; I'm sure they're thawed out by now!

Fondest memories are associated with people. For most Jacqueline and Jacquie wil be easily remembered. For others their memories will recall Gioncarlo, Teresa and Fabiana as they ask, as did Hall and Oates, "Where are the Italian girls?"

All in all commendation for this enjoyable and memorable tour has to be given to the characters who made up the whole group. Each and everyone should be thanked and congratulated for having created a BOGUS experience!

A MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA!

After nine years of presenting superior musicals, the VC/LFA Elementary Musical Society was pleased to mark its 10th Anniversary with "A Musical Extravaganza".

The show was an unique one. Musical numbers from various shows over the years were performed with the original performers; some of which were in the high school, and others who had graduated. The original Peter Pan, Wizard of Oz, Artful Dodger, Pinocchio and many others took part in this grand reunion, which was presented on May 3, 4, and 5th at the Prince of Wales Auditorium.

The cast began practicing in earnest during February. Many hours were put in by Mrs. June Koch as Mucical Director, Mrs Carol Coulson as Director and Choreographer, and by Brother Costello as Producer. Judging from the three performances, the cast and crew of "A Musical Extravaganza" deserve a round of applause.

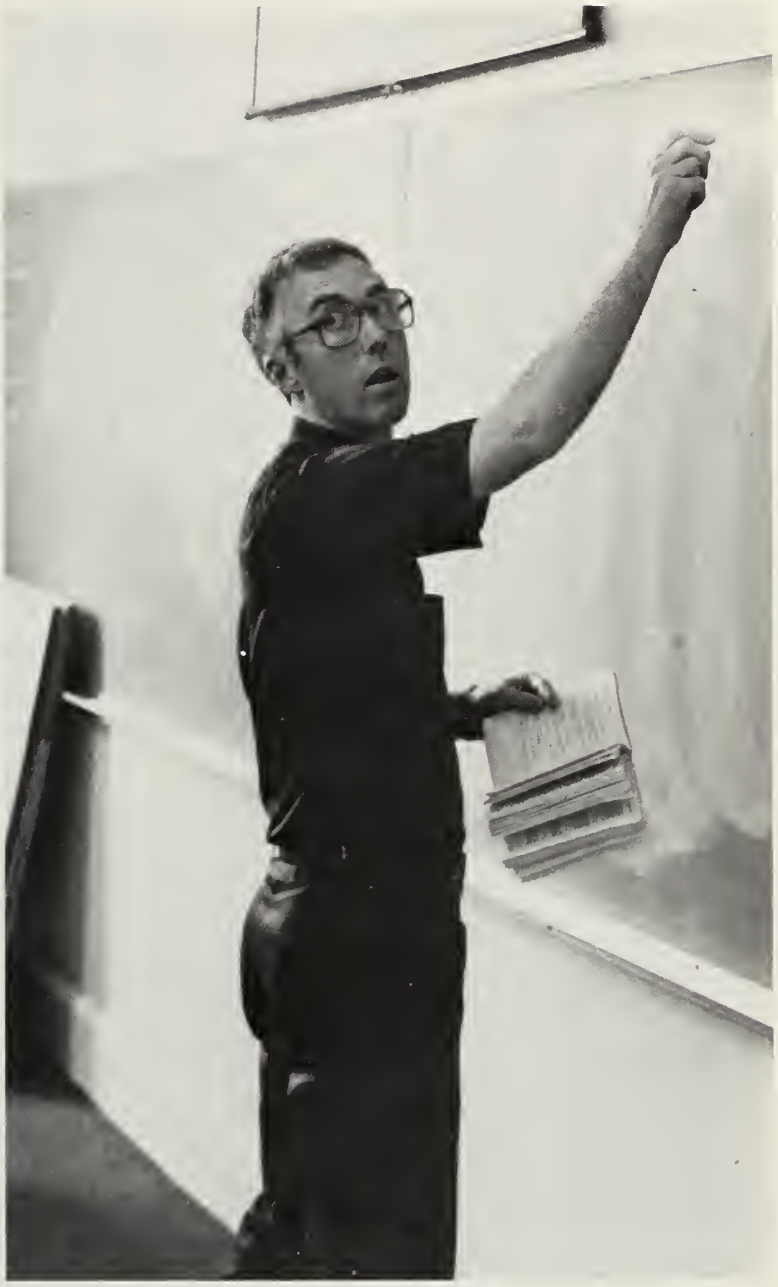
Every year, the yearbook is put together by a small dedicated group of students mainly from grades eleven and twelve. This year the many different faces who made up the 1984 Collegian staff created a book which we hope reflects the real pattern of life at V.C. Again this year the faculty section was informal, which provided a better balanced looking section. Hopefully the many candid shots throughout the book will accurately reflect our student body.

This year the staff tried a new organizational format headed by Dave Jansen as Editor; he was supported by an Editorial Advisory Committee which helped to determine the editorial policy of the Collegian. Thus, this year's book is truly the work of many hands. This year the school treasurer, Br. Brennan helped with the Ad section taking a heavy burden from Anil Dolan the Business editor. The staff would like to thank him for all his help during the year.

Three of the yearbook staff hierarchy had political inclinations towards the revitalized Progressive Conservative Party under Mr. Brian Mulroney. The yearbook room was frequently used as a P.C. Caucus room during lunch hour and was the location of many heated political debates.

THE 'VOICE' OF VANCOUVER COLLEGE



After the absence of a school newspaper for one year, a group of students undertook the task of getting a newspaper rolling; and they did. Under the fine moderation of Brother Hancock and Editor Ed Lopez, the Voice put out a medium-sized quality newspaper roughly every month. Included in each computer-printed issue were teacher interviews, music and movie reviews, comic strips, and the famous Jeff Thorne advice column. Many thanks to the staff for rejuvenating the newspaper and giving Vancouver College students something to look forward to and enjoy every month.

STUDENT COUNCIL OF 1984

Student Council, as always, plays an important role in the liason between the students and the governing forces of the school. This year, under Brother MacKenzie's moderation, members of the elected council met weekly with Brother McNiven in order to put across their ideas and get Brother's reaction to them. While the Council set up numerous dances but fell short of fulfilling other goals, it was kept financially afloat by a shrewd Oriental businessman, Alfred Ling. The Council is respected by all and a big thanks is given to all its members for their time and effort.

SYMBOLISM OF THE CREST

The Star in the Crest is a reminder that those who instruct many unto justice shall shine as stars for all eternity.

As the star shines in darkness, it is regarded as a symbol of enlightenment and instruction, the services which the Church requires from our Congregation on behalf of the youth of the flock; and since the instruction of the Religious Teacher should be primarily of Christ and Him crucified, the star is set upon the Cross, the source of the inspiration of our faith and the instrument of our Redemption. The Cross with its circle, the symbol of eternity, and its traceries, are essentially Celtic in design. The outer circle exhibits further specimens of Celtic tracery, and bears in Celtic lettering, and Latin words, the title of our congregation:

Congregation of the Christian Brothers.

The letters displayed on the open page are there to remind us again that, with our own sanctification, the great object of our congregation is to impart to the young the knowledge of God, of "Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

The ribbon that twines around the circle, and is made to appear above it in conventional forms, bears the motto, Facere et docere. These latin words mean to do and to teach.

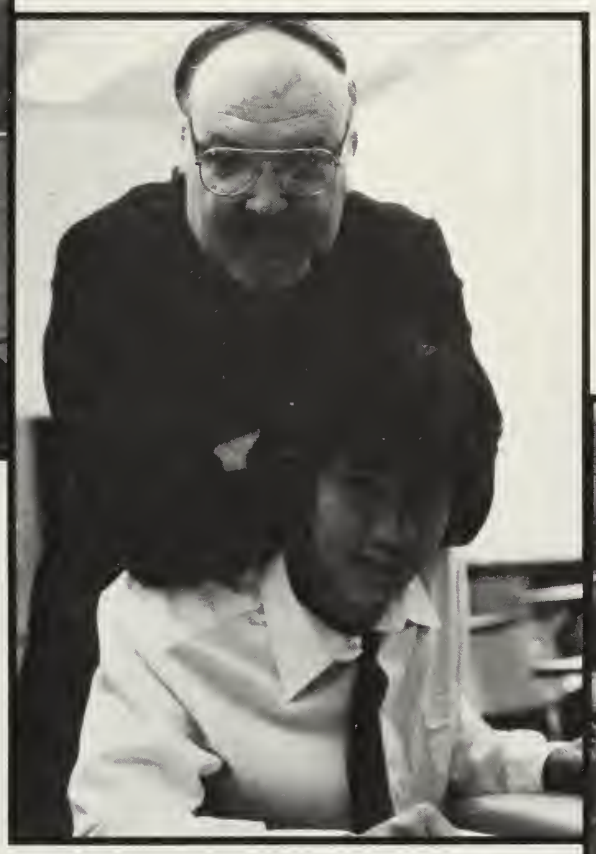
St. Matthew writes: "He therefore, who shall break one of these least commandments, and shall so teach men, shall be called the least in the kingdom of Heaven. But he that shall do and teach, shall be called great in the Kingdom of heaven.

Facere et docere, what more appropriate motto could be adopted by a Congregation of Religious Educators? Facere, to do, that is, to show forth in our lives the charity of Christ; docere, to teach the youth of our charge.

Finally the Cross, the emblem of our Faith, and the Star, an emblem of hope, and of Mary, Stella Maris, are enclosed in a frame composed of many parts all so ingeniously composed and deftly intertwined that the complete design produces that sense of satisfaction which harmony and unity ever create. And this, too, has its symbolims, for it typifies the comforting conditions that should adorn a Reglious Congregation whose members are gathered together "to procure God's glory as far as lies in them, or so far as He is pleased to require of them." To them may be applied the appreciation of the Psalmist: "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethern to dwell together in unity."

'Tis education forms the common mind;
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.

Pope



Everybody who is incapable of learning
has taken to teaching.

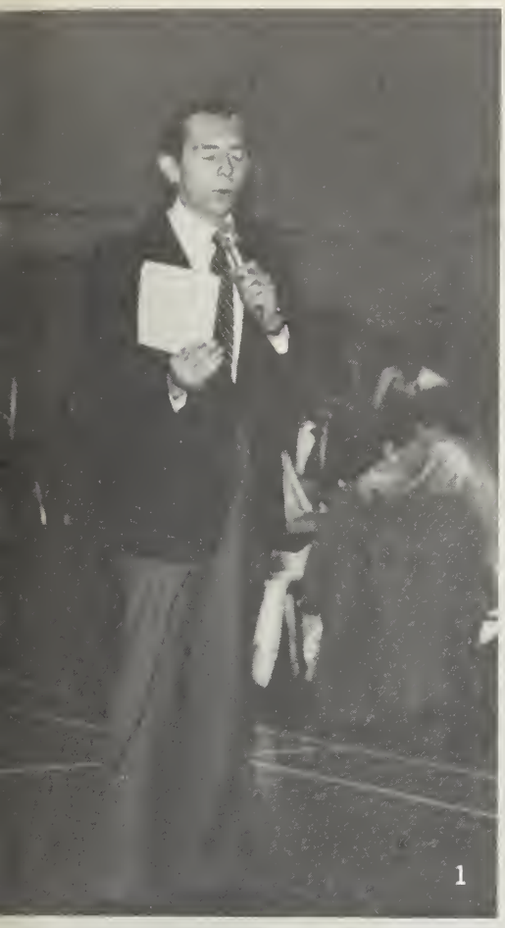
V.C. AUCTION

Where else would a pig sell for $600.00 or a bald man purchase a haircut for $50.00? The Vancouver College Parents Association Dinner Dance Auction, of course. For the past two years, the Parents Association has put on the gala event with great success, having the proceeds put towards the benefit of Vancouver College. This Section is dedicated to those Parents and students who made the affair a success.

1) The famous O'Hagan pig; Mr. O'Hagan (right) later donated it to the Brothers.
2) Doormen Joe Olma and Geoff Gray-Grant chat with Jen Turner and Mrs. McTavish working the coatroom.
3) Brother Maher and Mrs. Russell console a sorry bidder.
4) The Giefings and both Clarke families watch on as P.A. President Hank Giefing makes a bid.



1) Maynard's Auctioneers have hosted the event for the past two years and a special thanks should be given to Mr. Siebolt (shown here) and Maynard's Auctioneers. 2) Working the door, the Lettermen take a break as John Clarke cracks a joke. 3) One of the many interesting items included an authentic brass rubbing from England. 4) Mr. Seymour and Mrs. Olma share a laugh. 5) Mr. and Mrs. Ell contemplate a bid. 6) Boys, that would make a delicious Christmas Dinner.

Come For A Tour.

Ever since our $126 million Stadium opened, people have been asking for guided tours.

Well now we have them.

These fascinating one-hour tours take place seven days a week (as event scheduling permits) and they're held at 11am, 1pm, and 3pm.

They include a visit down to the field area. A look inside team dressing rooms. The private suites. The working media areas. A trip up to the highest seats. A peek behind the scenes at technical areas. A short film presentation.

And a stop at the souvenir shop.

The cost is $2.75 for adults. $2.00 for seniors and students (ages 13-18), $1.25 for children (ages 6-12) and no charge for children under six. Special rates are available for groups of 20 or more, when booked in advance. Call 661-3664 for information.

Tickets can be purchased at the Stadium half an hour before tour times at Gate A, just off Beatty Street.

So if you've got visitors coming to town, or if you haven't seen all our 60,000 seat Stadium has to offer, come for a tour.

See why it's the world's most beautiful and impressive air supported dome stadium. And why, as centerpiece of B.C. Place, and with the forthcoming Expo '86, we proudly say . . . Expect the World.

A phone company helping you through college?

Certainly! B.C. Tel has an investment in the future, in promising students like you. Which is why we offer a program of bursaries and scholarships at most post secondary institutions throughout British Columbia. These include B.C.'s regional colleges, as well as B.C.I.T., Pacific Vocational Institute, Simon Fraser University, U.B.C., University of Victoria, Emily Carr College of Art, and Trinity Western College.

Who is eligible? Awards are designed primarily for second year undergraduate students, although first year students may be accepted in some cases. At U.B.C., the awards are directed to those undertaking graduate studies only. Find out more about B.C. SYMBOLISM OF THE COLLEGE CREST

The present crest of Vancouver College dates from the 1930's -- at least the earliest publication of it appears in is the 1941 yearbook.

The crest is dominated by a cross -- the source of the inspiration of our Christian faith and that of the Irish Christain Brothers. The cross with its circle, the symbol of eternity and its traceries are essentially celtic in nature pointing to the Irish origin of the founding Christian Brothers. The outer circle bears the Latin inscription for Vancouver College and the date of its founding, 1922.

In the centre of the cross is a maple leaf -- symbolic of Canada and of hope for the future. It is interesting that the maple leaf hss been part of the College crest for a least forty-five years and perhaps longer, longer even than it has been officially Canada's national emblem.
